

Teacher: _____ Date: _____ School: _____

Unit: Dua Year: 1

NOTE!: Once a student has memorised a dua in Arabic, the appropriate box can be ticked , similarly when the student has memorised the translation for the dua it too can be ticked .

1.a.) Has memorised the dua for protection from Shaytan in Arabic.
1.b.) Has memorised the translation of the dua for protection from Shaytan in English.
2.a.) Has memorised the dua for starting something in Arabic.
2.b.) Has memorised the translation starting something host in English.
3.a.) Has memorised the greeting for meeting a Muslim in Arabic.
3.b.) Has memorised the translation of the greeting for meeting a Muslim in English.
4.a.) Has memorised the response to the Salam (3.a) in Arabic.
4.b.) Has memorised the translation the response to the Salam (3.b) in English.
5.a.) Has memorised the dua for thanking someone in Arabic.
5.b.) Has memorised the translation of the dua for thanking someone in English.
6.a.) Has memorised the dua for sneezing in Arabic.
6.b.) Has memorised the translation of the dua for sneezing in English.
7.a.) Has memorised the dua for replying to Al-Hamdulillah (6.a) in Arabic.
7.b.) Has memorised the translation of the dua for replying to Al-Hamdulillah (6.b) in English.
8.a.) Has memorised the dua for replying to Yahamukallah (7.a) in Arabic.
8.b.) Has memorised the translation of the dua for replying to Yarhamukallah (7.b) in English.																				