

Kindness to everyone

By Abu Haneefa

Allah sent his Prophets to teach us you see
That we are all equal, you and me
We are all the same, short or tall
We are all the same, big or small

But how can that be?
When you are so different to me
My skin is brown but yours is pink
Hmm, now let me think...

Well the Prophet, all peace onto him
Has told us how to be a good Muslim
It doesn't matter if we are rich or poor
It doesn't matter if we sleep on the floor

It doesn't matter if we walk with a stick
It doesn't matter if our cushion is a brick!
So what is important, we need to know
So let me explain, come on let's go

Allah looks at our hearts to see if they are pure
To do good deeds, that's for sure
To be nice to all people, I'll care to mention
Even if they follow another religion

Prophet Muhammad showed us the way
Peace and blessings upon him every day!
Kindness and mercy to the whole wide world
A simple smile for you and a good word
