

Unit: Siyam (fasting)

Islamic Studies
Year: 5

About the Unit

This is a short unit, designed to pose as a reminder about some of the virtues and practices of fasting specifically during the Islamic month of Ramadhan.

Expectations At the end of this unit

Where the unit fits in

This unit is an independent unit used as a reminder for fasting and about the month of Ramadhan.

Most children will:

Understand what fasting is in Islam and that the month of obligatory fasting is called Ramadhan. They will also be able to recount many virtues of fasting both spiritual and physical.

Prior learning

Expression of feelings and personal experiences are encouraged in these units and the child is encouraged to apply their knowledge into practical applications.

Some children will not have so much progress and will:

Understand that Allah has told us to fast and that Muslims are rewarded for doing so. Know the basics of how a Muslim spends his day fasting.

Vocabulary

Fasting, Ramadhan, sawm, pillar, Zakah, Salah, taraweeh, Quran, Sunnah, Hadith, Prophet, saum, Eid-ul-Fitr

Some children will have progressed further and will:

Recount with evidences the virtues of fasting and the obligation to fast based upon the text from the Quran.
