Resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Copies of the verse from Surah Baqarah:(183).Copies of Fasting worksheet.
Intro. Activity	Tell the children we are going to look at saum or fasting. This occurs in a special month. (Ramadhan.) Brainstorm what the children know about fasting and Ramadhan. (10 mins)
Main Activity(ies)	Read out the verse from surah Baqarah in Arabic and its translation, 'O you who believe...' Mention to the children that fasting means to refrain from something, in the case of fasting then it means refraining from those things that can break the fast during Ramadhan, write this point on the board. Ask the children to suggest the things that break the fast (To eat/drink on purpose, to vomit on purpose). Talk about Ramadhan being the name of a month. One of the forbidden months. (10mins) Give the children the fasting worksheet. Go through it with the children making sure they know what to do. (10-15mins) Give the children copies of the verse from Surah Baqarah, ask them to memorise it and its meaning. (10 mins)
Plenary	Go over some of the questions from the worksheet and test some of the children if they have learned the ayah from surah Baqarah. (10mins)
Differentiation	Work with children of lower ability.
Assessment	Assess children's understanding of the different aspects of Ramadhan through the marking of their work.
